MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director

Bill:

I have been pondering what comment, if any, we should make on the McGarvey book. Probably we should say something, but the less the better. Attached is a bare-bones statement which could be used for routine inquiries to Angus. We might say "endorsed" instead of "approved nor disapproved" in the last sentence. Also, we might add a sentence saying, "In large part the book is a rehash from Mr. McGarvey's point of view of previously published material." Congressional inquiries will have to be tailored according to the inquirer. Do you want to meet on this?
